SMC Fellowship News

“Life starts all over again when it gets crisp in the fall.”
-- F. Scott Fitzgerald,
The Great Gatsby.

Although it has been a long time since I've had to ready my kids for a new school year, whenever September rolls around, I still feel nostalgic. Parents sending their children off to school in these uncertain times do so with legitimate apprehension. Let us hope and pray that the coming academic year will be a safe and happy one for all these children and their families. – Joan F.

PENYPAA: PenyPaa (Peninsula Young People in AA) is now up and running again, with twice monthly meetings. For meeting information, see page 2.

Central Office News: Printed meeting schedules are now available at Central Office. The Meeting Guide In Person And Zoom on the website continues to be updated regularly.

What does our Central Office do?

The San Mateo County Fellowship's Central Office belongs to the A.A. groups of San Mateo County. We help carry A.A.'s message in the following ways (and more):

- ❖ Maintain a 24/7 telephone line which responds to inquiries from still-suffering alcoholics seeking help, A.A. members in need of information, and from members of the professional community and the general public. After office hours, this line is staffed by Teleservice volunteers.
- ❖ Maintain a Twelfth Step volunteer list.
- ❖ Maintain and publish group meeting schedules, in print, on our website, and in the Meeting Guide App.
- ❖ We stock a large selection books and pamphlets for sale (many are available in Spanish).
- ❖ We offer sobriety chips for sale, for both individuals and groups.
- ❖ We work closely with local A.A. service committees: Bridging the Gap, Hospitals and Institutions, Public Information/Cooperation with the Professional Community, as well as with San Mateo County General Service District 5 and the Northern California Council of Alcoholics Anonymous
- ❖ We support and participate in many local A.A. events such as Unity Day and the holiday Alkathons.
- ❖ We maintain our web site, aa-san-mateo.org, with up-to-date meeting listings, a schedule of A.A. events, the High Sobriety newsletter, and links to other A.A. web sites,
- ❖ We maintain a library of A.A. speaker CDs which are available for rent for a nominal fee.
- ❖ We publish the newsletter, High Sobriety, sent at no charge to all registered San Mateo County A.A. groups and available by subscription to all A.A. members. Faithful Fivers receive a free copy as well.

Who pays for our Central Office? We, the members of A.A., do. Our Seventh Tradition states that we are self-supporting through our own contributions. Central Office also receives donations from individual alcoholics (such as through our Faithful Fivers program). Other sources include our annual anniversary party and income from the sale of A.A. literature.

Central Office has resumed regular hours Monday through Friday from 8:30 am to 4:30 pm.

Happy Birthday

A Father's Wish

BY: BOB R. | SHELBURNE, VT

Near the end of my drinking, I lost my children. My two sons were not taken away. I pushed them away. I had no time for them because all I wanted to do was work and drink.

In sobriety, when I became ready for a relationship with my kids, they were unwilling. It was exactly like the Harry Chapin song, "Cat's in the Cradle," in which the father has no time for his son. Then the tables are turned when the boy grows to manhood and has no time for his dad. After several failed attempts at reconciliation, I believed I had lost my sons forever. I did not realize my Higher Power, through the Steps of AA, had other plans.

One morning almost five years ago, a miracle began to unfold. I was surprised to receive a phone call at my office from my oldest son (I'll call him James) who lives in the midwest. I live in New England. We had not spoken for several years. James said, "I'm calling because I need to decide if I want you to be my father or if I need to mentally and physically eliminate you from my life forever." He said he wanted to ask me a series of questions that he thought would help him make his decision.

My first impulse was to lie, to tell James whatever would make me look good in his eyes. But our phrase, "in all our affairs," suddenly entered my heart and replaced my fear. I knew that if I failed to answer honestly, the result would be a relationship built on a false foundation, that eventually the relationship would crumble and I could lose my son forever.

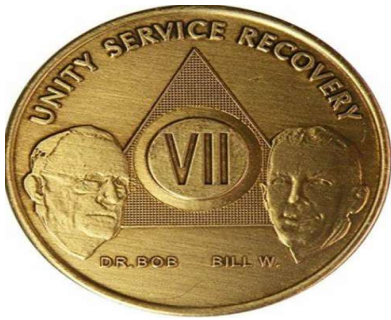

His questions centered on my drinking and my actions leading up to the divorce from his mother. I said a quick prayer and then answered all the questions honestly. At the end of the conversation, I was sure my answers had cost me my son, that he would never want to speak to me again. But the miracles of AA and my Higher Power were at work. James was weeping as he said, "I would like you to be my dad again."

Our relationship has blossomed. Today, James and his wife are the parents of a wonderful 4-year-old girl. I treasure every moment I get to spend with them.

My younger son? He still wanted nothing to do with me. I'll call him Mike. He too lived in a different city. While I tried to keep the door open by sending him Christmas and birthday gifts, his only response, on those rare occasions when he responded, was one of anger and resentment. Because I had other family members in the city where Mike lived, I traveled there several times a year. Before each trip, I sent Mike a note letting him know I was coming in case he wanted to get together with me. Mike never answered my notes.

It was during one of those visits that I called my sponsor, just to touch base. He asked if I had called Mike. I had not, but I explained that I had sent the usual note. My sponsor replied, "Isn't this a program in which we are willing to go to any lengths? I suggest you call Mike."

I immediately made the call. Mike was surprised to hear from me. He said he had gotten my note and had been thinking of contacting me. He wanted to get together and asked if he could bring his fiancée, a woman I had never met. What I thought would be a 20-minute get-together lasted more than two hours and it changed our lives. With tears in his eyes, Mike informed me he had been sober in AA for almost a year. We made amends to each other. The door I had slammed shut so many years before was suddenly opened, thanks to Steps Eight and Nine and the principles of AA.

AA HISTORY*The Biggest Tip I Ever Got*BY: TOM W. | SANTA FE, NEW MEXICO

In 1951, a 15-year-old boy delivered a telegram to a little house in Akron. He hadn't a clue why he'd one day return.

When I was a child, my family lived in the little town of Stow, Ohio, just outside Akron. I attended high school in Akron and during those years I had a part-time job at Western Union delivering telegrams on the weekends by bicycle.

One day in 1951, the dispatcher handed me a telegram for Anne Smith, the wife of Dr. Bob, the cofounder of AA. The dispatcher said to me, "This is for the family of the guy who started Alcoholics Anonymous. And don't take a tip because they don't have much money." (Dr. Bob had died the previous year.)

I already knew what Alcoholics Anonymous was. My first encounter with AA came when I was about 5 years old. We had two family members who worked at St. Thomas Hospital in Akron. They were two Catholic nuns who were in the same order as Sister Mary Ignatia, who was Dr. Bob's right-hand "angel" at the hospital. My family and I would occasionally visit these women on Sunday afternoons.

Sister Ignatia was a tiny little character who had taken up the cause of helping alcoholics recover. She was very influential in early AA in the Akron area. Nothing stopped her; she tangled with the bishop and with the nun who was the bursar of the hospital on behalf of the alcoholics who had checked into St. Thomas in hope of finally getting sober.

One afternoon when we were visiting the hospital, Sister Ignatia came through and we were introduced to her. She soon went off into a greenhouse that was next to the visitors' room. I was told, "That's where she keeps all the drunks." Thus, despite being only a teenager, I knew something of AA and how it worked.

So off I went that day on my bicycle, bearing a telegram to the home of the famous AA cofounder. It was about a 15-minute ride from downtown Akron to the Smith house. Their son answered the door, took the telegram and offered me a tip. Since I had been told not to accept a tip, I reluctantly said, "No, thanks."

Though there wasn't any particular reason that delivery should remain in my memory banks—except perhaps for a missed tip—I guess I really did mark it at the time. Years later, I went with my son to visit the home of the cofounder of AA, which was by then a historic landmark. When we got there, the events of that day in 1951 popped back into my memory. In front of the house, there was a little brick wall that I recognized as the same one that I had leaned my bike against those many years past.

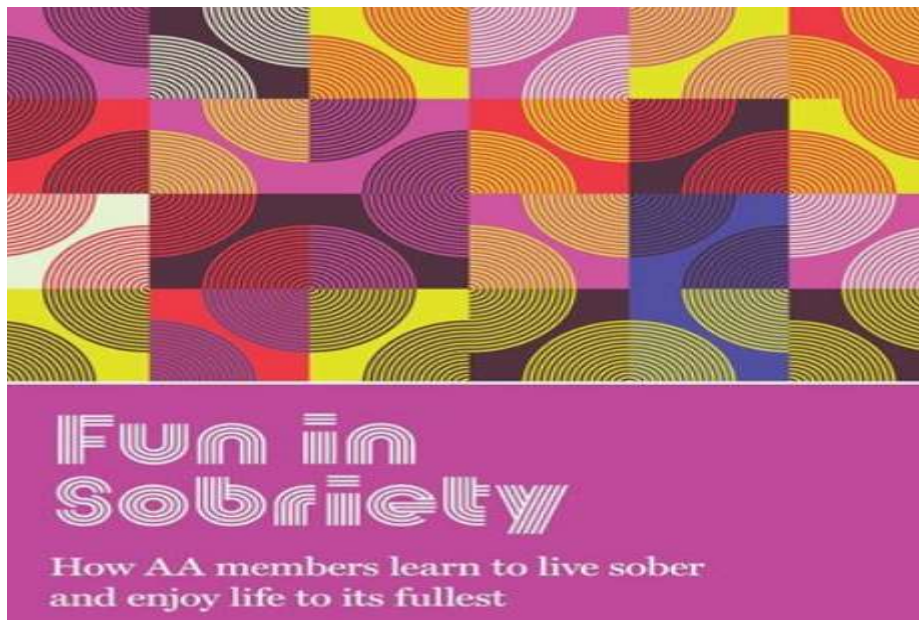

I was 15 back then. Of course, I had no idea my path would eventually lead me into AA. Now, at age 82, I carry a 38-year sobriety chip in my pocket. I just recently realized that the dispatcher at Western Union was probably in the AA program at the time. Otherwise, he wouldn't have known to tell me what he told me.

I've never thought that delivering that telegram and eventually becoming a member of Alcoholics Anonymous was anything but a coincidence. But I've told the anecdote several times as part of my AA story and I like to point out the obvious: Though I didn't get a tip from the Smith household that day when I was 15, the gift I eventually received from AA was priceless.
